Verse 2
Find the will within yourself.
Gaze into the furthest distance.
Fear no consequence of fate,
Let it guide you to ambition.

Verse 3
Sow seeds for another year.
They shall bloom in celebration.
Winters come and winters go,
Long will your golden fruit prosper.

Verse 4
Steadfast willow in the wind.
May your kinship be unending.
Clasp the comrade's loyal hand,
Let the chain keep us from bending.

Verse 5
Oh, courageous heroes all.
Bring your axe to the assemblies.
Have no fear of the unknown,
Your integrity protects you.

Verse 6
In the midst of darkest storms.
Keep afloat with clear perspective.
Steer your ships to brighter ports,
Wisdom's walls, a shield protective.

Verse 7
Stand your post with watchful eye.
Bear the light of lanterns shining.
Like the distant beacons bright,
Light The Way, your vigil guiding.
